

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Pure Cream of Tartar Powder

Dr. Wm. Sedgwick Saunders, Medical Officer of Health of the City of London, Eng., was good enough to say that a long and universal experience has proved a cream of tartar powder the most efficient, safe and economical, making food which could not be deleterious to the most delicate stomach.

In England the sale of baking powder containing alum is absolutely prohibited.

Large Attendance at Teachers' Meeting

Meeting Successful Although There was Disappointment at Failure of State Superintendent to Attend.

Instructors from all over Bernalillo county attended the county teachers' institute at the high school today. It was a most successful and valuable meeting, with a program lightened by numbers that were entertaining as well as educational. There was only one disappointment—the non-appearance of Alvin N. White, state superintendent of public instruction, who was expected to make an address. It was not learned why Mr. White failed to arrive, but it is assumed that he was unavoidably detained. Teachers, as well as pupils, had part in the program. The former appeared in drills and songs, and the latter were represented by a school-matrons' glee club, who sang most enjoyably. Addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Moise Bergmann and Hon. Senator Montoya. The program follows:

Plano solo, "Star of the Sea" (A. Kennedy)—Ella Albers, Old Albuquerque school.

Hooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Greatness of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and no such strain can be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Dempwolf Sues for $3,000 Damages for Assault

Much Troubled Restaurant Proprietor Alleges A. O. Bachechi not only Beat Him Inside but Outside His Place

Theodore Dempwolf, proprietor of a restaurant at 246 South Second street, whose wife recently instituted suit against him for divorce, has sued A. O. Bachechi for $3,000 damages in the district court. The action is to recover for injuries alleged to have been inflicted by Bachechi in an assault on Dempwolf at the latter's restaurant, February 17. Bachechi is a member of the firm of Bachechi & Co., East Tjeras avenue, dealers in general merchandise, of whom Dempwolf bought groceries. A dispute over an account arose, it is said, and Dempwolf alleges that Bachechi came to the restaurant and not only wounded him inside the place but dragged him outside and more or less whipped up the sidewalk with him. In the course of the assault, Dempwolf alleges, his shoulder was dislocated. Because of the alleged character of the row on the sidewalk, Dempwolf includes "insult and humiliation" among his list of grievances in the bill of complaint. Dempwolf is represented by John Venable.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Chicago, March 14.—Five armed robbers broke into the mail order branch of the Hartman Furniture company at 3913 Westworth avenue today, blew open the safe, tossed out its contents, threw aside valuable securities, discarded $40,000 in money orders and escaped with $15,000, the weekly payroll of the company.

OPIMUM SMUGGLERS OPERATING ALONG NORTHERN BORDER

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Duluth, Minn., March 14.—An organized gang of Chinese opium smugglers are menacing border cities, according to immigration authorities in Duluth who were today ordered to keep watch for them. The arrest of a Chinese at International Falls, and his subsequent questioning by authorities revealed the existence of the conspirators, it is said. He will be taken to San Francisco tomorrow for deportation.

It is the plan of the gang as outlined by the prisoner to go to a point near Port Francisco and then ferry Chinese immigrants across the river at night. Cities all along the border

Hunt for Treasure of the Pirate Jean Lafitte

Fiction Writers Join Party Which Believe Riches Untold are Buried in Wilds of Louisiana Swamp.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New Orleans, March 14.—Hunt for the treasure of the pirate Jean Lafitte is supposed to have begun in the swamp wilds of Louisiana during his successful operation on the gulf coast has been renewed and this time by two parties of gold seekers. Charles Tenney Jackson, a novelist, and Frederick W. McKenzie, editor of La Follette's magazine, form one party which left here yesterday for swamps where they said they would try to find the treasure. A story accredited to Jackson is that in 1811 he met in Louisiana an old man, picked to whom he became greatly attached. Just before the old man died he is reported to have given Jackson a rude map showing the location of the treasure. With this map Jackson and McKenzie say they will try to find the hidden gold. A party of New Orleans men left early this week after saying they expected to find the treasure, using a mysteriously obtained map as a guide. Louisiana historians generally agree that Jean Lafitte doubtless buried a great deal of some where in the swamps but none of it was ever found and from time to time the search is renewed.

Females Assault Residence of Minister

Armed with Hatchets They Smash all Windows in McKenna House. Pankhurst Female Loose Again.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) London, March 14.—A detachment of militant suffragettes armed with hatchets and hammers, smashed every pane of glass on the ground floor of the residence of Reginald McKenna, home secretary, in Smith Square, Westminster, today. The six women arrived in the square in an automobile and took by surprise the policemen who kept continual guard over the homes of the state ministers. All of those who took part in the attack were arrested, however, as they were leaving. Mr. McKenna left town for the week-end yesterday. The six women gave false names. They were later arraigned at Westminster police court and each sentenced to two months' imprisonment at hard labor.

Mrs. Pankhurst Released.
London, March 14.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was again released from Holloway jail today. She had started a "hunger and thirst strike" immediately after her arrest on Sunday last at Glasgow, and was sick and exhausted. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst also was liberated from Holloway jail today. She had been in prison since March 5 when she was arrested in Trafalgar square while protesting to a

CHAMBERLAIN DEMANDS THE RECALL OF PAGE

Oregon Senator Declares if He Cannot Keep His Mouth Shut He Should Hurry Home.

FULL REPORT OF HIS SPEECH MAKES IT WORSE

Asserts that Diplomat Only Reflects American View in One Thing and that is Unimportant.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Washington, March 14.—"Some means ought to be found by the powers that be to seal the lips of the ambassador to Great Britain or else in justice to the American people he ought to be recalled, and that as promptly as possible," declared Senator Chamberlain of Oregon in a formal statement today, after reading cabled accounts of Ambassador Page's address before the Associated Chambers of Commerce in London Wednesday night. Senator Chamberlain introduced the resolution passed by the senate as a result of which Secretary Bryan cabled Mr. Page for a full report of his speech in which he was reported as having said that the American people were pleased that Great Britain should profit most by the Panama canal and that the Monroe doctrine meant merely that the United States "would prefer that no European governments would gain new land in the new world."

"This is the second time in less than a year that Ambassador Page has been guilty of the impropriety of placing the American people in a false light before the British public," said Senator Chamberlain. "Further reports of the ambassador's London speech do not differ at all from the first report as to the matters concerning which I complained. It reflects the American view only in one particular and that is that we reserve in the prosperity of the British empire."

Places Provided for Siegel Clerks

Other Department Stores Promptly Hire Hundreds of Those Thrown Out of Employment by Failure.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, March 14.—Of more than two-thirds of the 2,500 employees of the bankrupt Siegel stores in this city, who are to be discharged tonight, it is estimated that not more than 200 will be idle Monday. A third of the force was retained to aid in the inventory and sale of the stocks of the stores. Other merchants generally were quick with offers of work to the dismissed. The entire auditing department of the Fourteenth street store has been employed by a firm of druggists. Contrary to general belief all of the clerks who are to be discharged will receive their weekly pay checks. Arrangements were made by the receivers to provide for these payments. Not much business was being done at either store today. The sales were almost deserted. At the Fourteenth street store the inventory was begun today. No announcement was posted in either of the stores that they would be closed tonight.

Crisis Now Past in Washington Society

Formal Announcement Issues from White House Today of Engagement of Miss Wilson to McAdoo.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Washington, March 14.—Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, daughter of the president and Mrs. Wilson, to William Gibbs McAdoo, relieved today the suspense Washington officials and society circles have been under for some days. Prospects for another White house wedding had been the all-absorbing topic of conversation in social circles here and formal announcement was awaited with keen interest. Intermittent rumors of the engagement of the president's youngest daughter to the secretary of the treasury had been current ever since the latter was a dinner guest at the White house just before the marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson to Francis B. Sayre. The fact that Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo had been seen together at dances and social functions lent credence to the rumors. No confirmation nor denial was given of the rumors and gossip in society circles persisted with more or less frequency until the president and Mrs. Wilson made the formal announcement of the engagement from the White house last night.

MEXICANS MIXED UP IN ATTEMPTED TRAIN HOLDUP IN ILLINOIS

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Peoria, Ill., March 14.—Aided by agents of Chicago and Northwestern, and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railways, authorities today will attempt to gain some light on the motives and identity of the four men who yesterday killed Arthur Fisher, an engineer, and wounded several other men near Mantua, Ill. The proceedings will be in the form of an inquest over the body of one of the robbers who died last night at Spring Valley, whether he was taken after being wounded by a posse of farmers and deputies.

Thus far efforts to get the other three men to talk or to obtain information concerning them from laborers in railroad construction camps at Mantua, Langley, and Sheffield have met with failure. The culprits are thought to be Mexicans, as several scores of that nationality have been working in the camps but questioning of these workmen has brought no information and the three prisoners' silence has been unbroken. A dozen Mexican laborers have been rounded up by the county authorities and detained in jail at Princeton as witnesses.

NEW HAVEN MUST GET RID OF ITS STEAMSHIP LINES

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Washington, March 14.—Department of justice attorneys in charge of the New Haven dissolution, at their conference today with the road's counsel, revived their demand that the New Haven prepare to get rid of its so-called Sound steamship lines. The demand came as a surprise to New Haven officials and to officials of the department itself, not directly connected with the negotiations.

In the bill prepared by T. W. Gregory, government attorney, who with Jesse C. Atkins, is in charge of the case for suit under the Sherman act, the Sound lines were included as prominent factors in the New Haven's alleged monopoly of the New England transportation field. The department is said to take the stand that it can do no less in an amicable adjustment of the case than it would have attempted to do through the courts. If the interstate commerce commission decides that the New Haven can lawfully retain the Sound lines, the department probably would be satisfied.

Involved in the question is the disposition of many of the wharves and docks owned by the New Haven in sound cities. Many of these properties are said to be of little value to the New Haven and there have been for sale for years. The argument against their sale was made by E. C. Buckland, vice president of the road, who said these properties were owned in fee and that forced sales would lead to material losses. He declared that their ownership by the New Haven gave the road a monopoly of the water frontage and a monopoly on the water commerce of New England. He called attention to the fact that the New Haven had made many offers to sell certain of these properties, but had been unable to get what it considered fair offers.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Jacksonville, Fla., March 14.—Arthur Vile, son of a wealthy steamship owner in Bremen, Germany, was arrested here today as an undesirable alien. It is alleged that Vile was smuggled into the United States on board an English tramp vessel and that he was confined for a time in a New York hospital under observation, but escaped.

GREAT SALT LAKE PRESERVES TIMBERS

Forest Service Makes Curious Discovery in Studying the Methods of Preserving Railroad Material.

In replacing a railroad trestle recently burned along the north shore of Great Salt Lake, engineers have just found that the piles are still perfectly sound after 43 years of service. Looking for the cause, since these were only of local pine and fir, they found the timbers were impregnated throughout with salt from the lake. At another point on the lake, 18-inch piles, set 25 years, are similarly preserved with salt which has penetrated to their very center. Timbers in the southern Pacific trestles across Salt Lake, placed in 1922, appear to be as good as on the day when the piles were driven. They have been preserved well above water line by the salt dashed on to them by the waves, a fact apparently anticipated by the engineers who built the trestles.

The first transcontinental telegraph line, built before the railroad, extended west from Salt Lake City through the prosperous mining camps of Eureka, Austin and Virginia City. When the railroad was built, the telegraph line was transferred to follow its right of way and the old poles sawed off at the ground. An engineer who recently examined the butts left in the ground in the salt desert near Fish Springs found which, although fifty years had passed since the poles were cut off, the old butts were perfectly sound.

Telephone and electric companies in the Salt Lake valley have used the local salt for preserving poles. When set up, about 75 pounds of salt is placed around the pole on the ground. This method can not be used, however, when the pole is on or near a lawn, or in any place where vegetation is desired.

It is pointed out that the reason why the waters of Salt Lake act as a strong preservative, as distinguished from ocean waters, is because the lake water is so much saltier, being practically a saturated solution. Preservation with salt is of no use in ocean piling against the attacks of termites and other marine borers.

Experts in the forest service who have been investigating the preservative treatment of timber offer the suggestion that ties and poles which have been immersed for sometime in the waters of the lake ought to be impervious to decay if the salt is not leached out by the action of the elements. It has been suggested that they be guarded against, for example, by painting the butt of the pole with a coat of creosote which will keep out the moisture and keep in the salt.

MAN WHO INVADED L'HASSA LANDS FOR AMERICAN TOUR

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, March 14.—Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, of the British army, the first white man to lead a military force into the sacred city of L'Hassa in Tibet, arrived today on the steamship Manassas.

TEXT OF ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

In response to a universal call for the conservation of our natural resources, in harmony with the movement to have agriculture taught in every school in the state; and with the desire of arousing in the youth of the land an intelligent appreciation of the dependence of all upon nature, it is important that our state have the opportunity of attaining observing Arbor day.

Now, Therefore, I, William C. McDonald, governor of the state of New Mexico, by virtue of the authority of law and in accord with the spirit of the times, do hereby designate and proclaim Friday, March, Twenty-seventh, as Arbor day.

To be formally recognized in all the schools of the state, and I urge that on this day, teachers, pupils, and patrons unite in such appropriate tasks and exercises as will leave a permanent desire in the mind of each one to become an active agent in the conservation of all useful things, so that the spirit of the day may create a healthy influence in the lives of our boys and girls, leading them to devote not one or two special days in the year to the study of trees, birds, flowers, school gardens, good roads and nature study, but parts of every day, to the conserving and enriching of plant and animal life.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico at the capital in the city of Santa Fe, this 13th day of March, A. D. 1914.

By the governor:
WILLIAM C. McDONALD, Governor.
(Seal)
ANTONIO LUCERO, Secretary of State.

BARRATRY CHARGE FOR NEW YORKER

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Boston, March 14.—Captain John A. Fish of New York today was sentenced to five years in the federal prison at Atlanta for burning his yacht, Santa, in Edgewater harbor on October 21, 1913, in order to obtain $15,000 insurance money. An appeal on a writ of error was taken and this acted as a stay but in default of security Fish was sent to jail.

In moving sentence United States District Attorney French stated that Fish when 21 years old deserted from the United States army. At the time he was ordered at West Point. Friends of the prisoner's from New York asked the court to be lenient and told of acts of bravery while in the British army in South Africa, which earned him service medals.

Judge Hale said that the maximum penalty for barratry was imprisonment for life but that in view of the fact that Fish had deserted the lives of those on board the burning yacht he would sentence him to five years only.
